Family Connection

Family demands can make us feel like Jesus and the twelve apostles. We wish for times of relaxation and renewal, but there are errands to do, household chores to keep up with, volunteer commitments to keep. These are all good things, but we can be left feeling drained and tired as we try to keep up. Perhaps we might take the opportunity this week to give ourselves permission to find the rest and relaxation that Jesus seeks for his disciples in today's Gospel. One of the gifts we can give to one another in our family life is assistance in finding the time and space to renew ourselves through prayer.

When you gather together as a family this week, bring your family calendar. Together review your family calendar and spend some time reflecting on your family activities. In particular, ask if your family has an appropriate amount of time for rest and relaxation. If not, discuss ways in which this time for renewal might be included in the week ahead. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 6:30-34. Notice how Jesus tried to find time and space for his disciples to rest and relax after they returned from their mission. Conclude in prayer together, asking God to help us find time to renew ourselves so that we might be better disciples of Jesus.

July 18

May the Lord give strength to his people! May the Lord bless his people with peace!"

-Psalms 29:11

At an early age my mother taught my brothers and me her favorite prayers. The one that resonated most was about serenity. My mother often reminded us that many things in life are not in our control and that the key is to be calm and trust in Our Lord-just as Mary did.

Because so much is immediately available at our fingertips today, we are trained to be instantly gratified. That doesn't help us to relax and put our needs prayerfully in the Lord's hands. Prayer is not a means for instant satisfaction. Instead, we need to stop, slow down, and learn to live each moment with thoughtful attention.

Mary's life of faith offers us a model for remaining calm in the midst of daily pressures. Difficult as it may be to change our pace, we can choose to surrender to God's plan for us and trust that our paths are being guided in the right direction. -Mary L. Kostic

Prayer: Mary, thank you for giving us the example of remaining calm amidst turmoil in our lives.
